

NJACCHO Sponsored Education and Scholarships Spring 2024

There are a huge variety of opportunities for local health departments and their staff. Please share broadly with your staff. Overview of all available offerings and registration details are below.

Introduction to Incident Command Systems- ICS-100

3- Part Webinar Series

Join NJACCHO PHEP Coordinator, James McDonald, for an overview of ICS training options and completion of the ICS Training.

*1.0 Public Health CEU available for each session

Part 1: February 21st, 2:00pm – Register Here

Part 2: March 6th, 2:00pm – Register Here

Part 3: March 20th, 2:00pm – Register Here

Dale Carnegie Courses:

Leadership Training for Manager (LTM)

March 12th, 19th & 26th

Cumberland County Library

Register Here

Develop Your Leadership Potential (DYLP)

March 22 to May 23

9:30 – 1:00pm

in Camden County 8-half day sessions

Register Here

Open Enrollment Classes

Haven't been able to participate in one of the NJACCHO cohorts? This sponsorship allows you to attend ANY Dale Carnegie Program starting before 6/30 /24 – virtual or in person.

ONLY 2 Spots left!

Register Here

Media Relations & Communication:

Tom Slater will conduct 3 regional trainings, designed to provide communication principles with interactive, mock interviews and feedback. Public Health CEUs are available.

April 12th; 9:00am – 3:00pm

Morris County Public Safety Training Center

May 23rd; 9:00am – 3:00pm

Rowan College at Gloucester

June 7th; 9:00 -3:00pm

RWJ Fitness and Wellness Center - Hamilton

Space is limited to 15 participants PER session.

Complete the application here to be considered for attendance at ANY of the sessions.

Risk Communication Training

Facilitated by Johns Hopkins

Final dates and locations are being arranged and should be available mid-February.

Expected to hold 3 regional sessions.

Target – late April/early May.

MRC STTrong

These day long sessions are available to MRC Coordinators, LHD staff who work closely with their local units and MRC volunteers. Additional details and agendas are anticipated by early March.

SAVE THE DATE!

May 8th - Stockton University

May 13th - Montclair State University

May 14th - Mercer County Community College

Registration information expected early March.

MAPP 2.0

This 2-day program will train participants to support and facilitate the Mobilizing for Action through Planning and Partnership (MAPP). The process can assist with local CHA and CHIP processes now or in the future. More details on the course can be found here.

June 5th & 6th; 9:00am – 4:30pm

Monmouth County Health Department, Freehold

Register Here

June 10th & 11th; 9:00am – 4:30pm

Public Safety Academy, Wayne

Register Here

2nd Annual Communicable Disease Summit

*Resilience & Readiness Post-COVID:
Supporting Staff & Staying Ready for the Next Epidemic*

June 12th; 9:00am – 4:00pm

Forsgate County Club

Register Here

Sponsorship Opportunities

Certified Infection Control (CIC)

Certification

Applicants may apply for online learning subscription and/or exam registration fees. Purchases and/or registration MUST be complete by June 30, 2024.

Full details and application details are available here.

Application deadline is March 1st.

Building Expertise in Administration & Management (BEAM)

This fully online certificate available through the University of Miami explores management principals with an eye to public health.

Full details and application details are available here.

Application deadline is February 23rd.

Certified Public Manager (CPM)

Interested candidates MUST participate in one of the Spring 2024 Cohorts (Wayne or Freehold) to be considered.

Full details and application details are available here.

Application deadline is February 23rd.